SISTER-IN-LAW OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN, 103 YEARS OLD, CASTS FIRST VOTE IN OREGON

MRS. SARAH TODD

1913

EUGENE ORE., December 10.– Mrs. Sarah Todd, 103 years old, and a sister-in-law of Abraham Lincoln, walked to the polls this month and cast her first vote. "Grandma" Todd, as she is familiarly known in Eugene, has taken a lively interest in the referendum balloting. Born in Kentucky when that state was a wilderness, she moved to Missouri at an early age, and came to Oregon twenty years ago. This was, therefore, her first opportunity to enjoy the right of suffrage, and she was especially concerned over the fate of the university measures. "Grandma" Todd will be 104 years old March 29. Her husband's sister was Mrs. Abraham Lincoln. She has been making her home during the past ten years with Rev. J. S. McCallum, who lives at 1165 Willamette street, this city.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S SISTER-IN-LAW, Mrs. Sarah Todd, of Eugene, Ore., became a voter the other day at the age of 103. She cast a ballot in a referendum election. Mrs. Todd was recovering from grippe and felt a little less "hearty and hale" than usual; but "refused a proffered arm and walked to the polls with only her cane for support"

Gentlemen:

I am seeking information concdrning Samuel B. Todd who was in Harrodsburg, Kentucky in 1813. Do you have available any information concerning him or can you tell me where I might find something about him.

I am greatly interested in knowing in what, if any, way he was connected with the family of Mary Todd.

Thank you for any information you give me.

Yours very truly,

C. E. Van Norman

A Proposed Transylvania Memorial.

The Transylvanians, a patriotic society founded October 11, 1929, at Henderson, Kentucky, is arranging a celebration at Boonesborough, Kentucky, October 12, 1935. Many other patriotic societies will assist in the celebration. The governors of Kentucky, North Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee are sponsoring the celebration, which is being promoted by a committee of distinguished men and women.

Five historic events, interlinked in the history of this epochal movement of expansion and colonization in the opening of the West, will be celebrated on this occasion. These are:

1—The founding of the Transylvania Company at Hillsborough, North Carolina, January 6, 1775.

2—The Treaty of Sycamore Shoals, March 14-17, 1775, by which the Transylvania Company acquired of the tribe of Cherokee Indians title to upwards of twenty millions of acres of land, covering much of Tennessee and the greater part of present Kentucky.

3—The cutting of the Transylvania Trail from the Long Island of Holston River, Tennessee, to Otter Creek, Kentucky, site of later Boonesborough—the first great pathway to the West.

4—The convening of the Legislature of Transylvania at Boonesborough, May 23, 1775, the first legislative body of Americans to assemble west of Cumberland Gap.

5—The founding of the State of Transylvania and its capital, Boonesborough, April—May, 1775.

This celebration is being held this year, since it is the bicentennial of the birth of Richard Henderson, President of the Transylvania Company, April 20, 1735. It is planned to unveil four large tablets, set in a giant granite boulder on the site of the meeting of the Transylvania Legislature, to commemorate the events mentioned. On the tablets will appear, with suitable inscriptions:

1—The names of the Proprietors of Transylvania: Richard Henderson, John Williams, Thomas Hart, Nathaniel Hart, David Hart, James Hogg, William Johnston, Leonard Henley Bullock and John Luttrell.

2—The names of the axemen who cut out the Transylvania Trail: Daniel Boone, Squire Boone, James Bridges, William Bush, Samuel Coburn, Richard Callaway, Crabtree, Benjamin Cuthirth, David Gass, John Hart, William Hays, William Hicks, Edmund Jennings, Thomas Johnson, John Kennedy, John King, William Miller, William Moore, James Nail, James Peeke, Bartlett Searcy, Reuben Searcy, Michael Stoner, Samuel Tate, William Twitty, Felix Walker, Thomas McDowell, Jeremiah McPheeters.

3—The names of the officials and legislators of Transylvania: Proprietors: Richard Henderson, Nathaniel Hart, John Luttrell. Representatives: for Boonesborough, Squire Boone. Daniel Boone, William Cocke, Samuel Henderson, William Moore, Richard Callaway; for Harrodsburg, Thomas Slaughter, John Lythe, Valentine Harmon, James Douglass; for Boiling Spring, James Harrod, Nathan Hammond, Isaac Hite, Azariah Davis; for St. Asaph's, John Todd, Alexander Spotswood Dandridge, John Floyd, Samuel Wood. Robert McAfee, Sergeant at Arms, Matthew Jouett, Clerk.

4—A design in relief showing the Legislature of Transylvania in session.

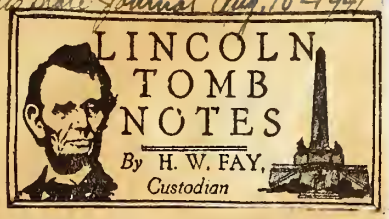
Miss Todd, a student at Graham High School, was crowned queen of the annual Greenville 1940 Strawberry Festival which closed Saturday.

Ill. State Journal Aug. 10 - 1941



There were about 2,100 callers registered yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Phillips of Minneapolis, Minn., were morning callers and stayed to hear many stories of Lincoln. He is a personal friend of Governor Stasson of his state.

John W. Maurer of Tallula, Menard county, was an afternoon caller. He brought out a group of Chicago C.C.C. boys who formerly were on the job at New Salem state park.

Guests from India asked to see a picture of Rabindranath Tagore, the poet in India. They were shown an album with over fifty pictures of him or about him, his friends and his cause. He died at Calcutta, India, Aug. 7, 1941. Aged 80 years. He wore a long white beard and his picture suggests Longfellow, Bryant, Whitman, Joaquin Miller and other American bards. He had many friends in America.

J. C. Hullett of this city, who had been employed at St. Louis for a year or two and is now connected with the Woodstock Typewriter office in Chicago, was an afternoon caller. He brought out and donated a prize item which is a piece of wood from the far famed "Charter Oak" in Connecticut. Accompanying this are a number of historical items.

J. L. Hankins of Chicago brought out Nathan Hall Todd, 4500 Sheridan road, Chicago. He is 84 years of age. Mrs. Lincoln's father and his grandfather were brothers. He is writing a book to correct some of the injustices done Mrs. Lincoln.

Lawrence Tangney, Decatur, county clerk of Macon county, sends two prized Lincoln items of May 26, 1830.

Joe Zold of Pawnee brought out several guests to visit the tomb.

Robert A. Evans and Faye Lucille Evans of Witt brought out Joseph N. Togba of Liberia, Africa.

John Allen and party of Moline went the rounds.

Lorane Thomas of Sandwich, DeKalb county, was an afternoon guest with party of friends.

Freeman Wood of this city brought out friends.

DR. JOHN TODD AMONG PIONEER MEDICAL MEN

Came To Illinois From Kentucky In 1817.

Among the distinguished pioneer physicians of Springfield was Dr. John Todd, who came to Illinois in 1817. Doctor Todd, who was a native of Fayette county, Kentucky, was graduated from the Transylvania university and subsequently from the University of Pennsylvania. He was surgeon-general of the Kentucky troops, serving in the War of 1812 on the northwestern frontier under General Harrison.

Doctor Todd was taken prisoner at the battle of River Raisin. He was paroled in the winter of 1813 and returned to Kentucky, where he remained until 1817. Coming to Illinois, he first located at Edwardsville where he practiced ten years. His death occurred at his home in Springfield Jan. 7, 1865. The State Journal of the following day thus characterized the good Doctor Todd:

"During all the years of active professional life he was noted for his kindness of heart, his disinterested benevolence and charities to the poor. In all the relations of life, as husband, father, friend and physician, he was a most estimable man. He has gone to his last home full of years and full of the love of all who knew him."
